Morgan is a solid all around player. Not only does he have the offensive talent to move to the next level but his defensive play is second to none. Morgan is a very responsible in the defensive zone, which he showed through the season while playing on the Bisons' number one penalty killing unit. Morgan is a very smooth skater who has good speed and acceleration. Along with his skating Morgan has an accurate shot and natural goal scoring ability, making him a threat to score on every shift he plays. Throughout this season Morgan developed even better vision of the ice which helped increase his playmaking, adding another tool to his arsenal. Morgan played most of the year at centre but also proved to be an effective player on the wing.
